Newsletter

Embassy of the People's Democratic Republic of Algeria

1st – 15th October 2026 Issue 19

Content

The national economy will continue its positive growth trajectory

The national economy will continue its positive growth trajectory in 2027, which should reach 4.2%, driven by the performance of non-hydrocarbon sectors, including industry, construction, services and agriculture, according to the draft finance law (PLF) for 2027, presented by the Minister of Finance, Mohamed Lamine Lebbou, before the finance and budget committee of the National People's Assembly (APN). Read more.

The 2nd edition of the International Packaging Exhibition opens in Algiers with 112 exhibitors

The second edition of the international packaging and conditioning exhibition "Empack Algeria" opened at the Palais des Expositions des Pins Maritimes (Safex) in Algiers, with the participation of 112 exhibitors. Read more.

Sonatrach strengthens its partnership with American energy players

The Chairman and CEO of the Sonatrach group, Nour Eddine Daoudi, held a series of meetings in the United States with the leaders of the American energy companies ExxonMobil, Halliburton and Devon Energy, during which the strengthening of the partnership was examined, according to a statement from the group. Read more.

Newsletter

Embassy of the People's Democratic Republic of Algeria

1st – 15th October 2026 Issue 19

Algeria will be the guest of honor at the 34th edition, scheduled to take place from 10th to 16th December

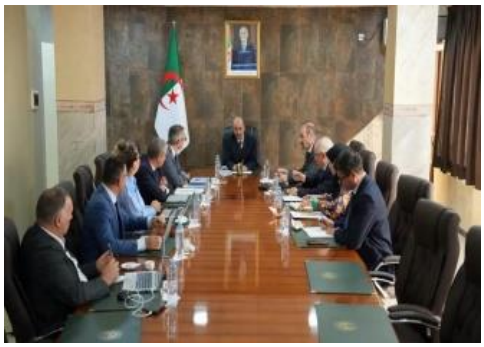
The Ministry of Foreign Trade and Export Promotion announced in a statement that Algeria will participate as guest of honor in the 34th edition of the Dakar International Fair (FIDAK), scheduled to take place from December 10 to 16. Read more.

The Minister of Industry is examining partnership opportunities with General Motors

The Minister of Industry, Farid Kourtel, received in Algiers a delegation from the car manufacturer General Motors, led by the Chairman of the Board and General Manager of the company for Egypt and Africa, Rohan Fernandes, in order to examine the prospects for cooperation in the field of the automotive industry and the possibilities of partnership. Read more.

Examination of ways to strengthen local integration and increase production with Stellantis Algeria

The Minister of Industry, Farid Kourtel, received in Algiers the Chairman of the Board of Directors of Stellantis Algeria, Raoui Beji, accompanied by a delegation from the company, in order to examine ways to strengthen local integration and expand the industrial subcontracting network. Read more.



Newsletter

Embassy of the People's Democratic Republic of Algeria

1st – 15th October 2026 Issue 19

Sonelgaz intends to become a catalyst for Algerian companies' access to regional energy markets

The Sonelgaz group intends, thanks to its accumulated experience, to become a catalyst for Algerian companies' access to regional energy markets, particularly in Africa, assured the Minister of Energy and Renewable Energies, Mourad Adjal. Read more.

Signing of several memoranda of understanding and an export contract for Algerian products

The International Fruit and Vegetable Exhibition (Fruit Attraction 2026) closed in Madrid (Spain), with the signing of eight (8) memoranda of understanding and an export contract to Germany, according to a statement from the Ministry of Foreign Trade and Export Promotion. Read more.

AAPI is participating in the "Africa Alamein 2026" Forum in Egypt from October 2nd to 4th

The Algerian Investment Promotion Agency (AAPI) is participating in the first edition of the "Africa Alamein 2026" forum, which is being held in the new city of El-Alamein, in the Arab Republic of Egypt, from 2 to 4 October, and will be represented by its Director General Omar Rekkache, a statement from the Agency indicated. Read more.

Newsletter

Embassy of the People's Democratic Republic of Algeria

1st – 15th October 2026 Issue 19

REVADE 2026: Strong national and international participation expected in Algiers

The 10th edition of the International Exhibition of Waste Recovery and Valorisation (REVADE 2026) will open at the Palais des Expositions des Pins Maritimes (Algiers), with the participation of at least 150 Algerian companies and several foreign companies from different countries. Read more.

Kahraba Expo 2026: Algerian innovations to streamline energy consumption and develop storage

The technological innovations and scientific research projects presented at the 2nd edition of the International Electricity and Renewable Energy Exhibition "Kahraba Expo 2026" highlight the importance of developing local solutions aimed at rationalising energy consumption, ensuring its storage and producing green hydrogen, thus contributing to the energy transition in Algeria and strengthening the competitiveness of industrial companies. Read more.

Rekkache receives a delegation from the IMF

The Director General of the Algerian Investment Promotion Agency (AAPI), Omar Rekkache, received at the Agency's headquarters a delegation from the International Monetary Fund (IMF), which was visiting Algeria, with whom he reviewed the developments recorded in terms of improving the business climate, according to a statement from the Agency. Read more.

Newsletter

Embassy of the People's Democratic Republic of Algeria

1st – 15th October 2026 Issue 19

Algeria and South Africa are examining opportunities for joint investment projects.

The Director General of the Algerian Investment Promotion Agency (AAPI), Omar Rekkache, examined in Algiers, with the Director General of Bilateral Economic Relations with Africa at the Ministry of Trade, Industry and Competition of the Republic of South Africa, Zanele Sanni, the ways and means of strengthening economic cooperation and investment between the two countries, in particular through the development of partnerships and the implementation of joint investment projects. Read more.

Algeria-Spain: Two cooperation agreements signed in the red meat sector

Two cooperation agreements in the red meat sector were signed in Algiers between Algerian and Spanish organisations, on the side-lines of a bilateral meeting under the theme "Uniting markets, strengthening the sector". Read more.

Austrian companies are expressing interest in investing in Algeria

Austrian companies expressed their interest in investing in Algeria and strengthening economic partnerships in several sectors at the Algerian-Austrian business forum held in Algiers. Read more.

Development and distribution of lifting and handling solutions: Austrian expertise offered to Algeria

The representative of the CACI, Rabah Charef, called for accelerating the conclusion of a memorandum of understanding and cooperation with the Austrian Federal Economic Chamber. Read more.

Newsletter

Embassy of the People's Democratic Republic of Algeria

1st – 15th October 2026 Issue 19

The Algerian-American energy partnership faces a strategic opportunity

The president of the American Chamber of Commerce in Algeria, Warren Murdock, said in Oran that the current situation offers a strategic opportunity to strengthen the energy partnership between Algeria and the United States, in a context marked by the transformations of the global energy market and the return of energy security to the forefront of priorities. Read more.

An Algerian-Slovak cooperation agreement for the recovery of industrial waste

The National Recovery and Valorisation Company (SNRV) and the Slovak company BK Investment have signed a memorandum of understanding on the treatment and valorisation of waste from the steel industry, according to a statement released by the national holding group of the iron and steel industry SNS. Read more.

Flights to Tripoli will resume at the end of October

The national airline Air Algérie will resume its flights to Tripoli (Libya) from 28 October, with two flights per week, APS learned from the company. Read more.

Newsletter

Embassy of the People's Democratic Republic of Algeria

1st – 15th October 2026 Issue 19

Environment, climate and renewable energy: OPEC praises the Algerian development model

The first edition of the 2026 annual report states that "the Algerian plan for renewable energy and energy efficiency remains an important example of an integrated approach, with a target of 15 GW of renewable capacity by 2035, of which more than 3 GW have already been achieved." Read more.

The attractiveness of the investment environment in Algeria strengthens the prospects for energy cooperation with Great Britain

The Ambassador of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Northern Ireland to Algeria, Mr. James Downer, indicated in Oran that the investment environment offered by the Algerian energy sector was generating increasing interest among a growing number of British companies and groups. Read more.

The strategic importance of the energy partnership between Algeria and the EU reaffirmed

The Ambassador of the Delegation of the European Union (EU) in Algeria, Diego Mellado Pascua, reaffirmed in Oran the strategic importance of the energy partnership between Algeria and the EU, highlighting Algeria's reliability as a gas supplier and its potential in new energy sectors, particularly renewable energies and green hydrogen. Read more.

Energy partnership between Algeria and Saudi Arabia: Midad releases three billion dollars

This mega-project boasts a total investment program of $5.4 billion, entirely funded by the Saudi firm. Read more.

Newsletter

Embassy of the People's Democratic Republic of Algeria

1st – 15th October 2026 Issue 19

Preparation of a new partnership program aimed at promoting investment and improving the business climate

Preparatory meetings for the development of a new partnership program between Algeria and the European Union (EU), aimed at promoting investment and improving the business climate, began at the headquarters of the Algerian Investment Promotion Agency (AAPI) in Algiers. Read more.

More than 200 exhibitors expected at the 9th edition

More than 200 exhibitors representing national and foreign companies are expected at the 9th edition of the International Building, Real Estate and Public Works Exhibition of Eastern Algeria "Bati-Est-Expo", scheduled from 14 to 17 October at the "Ahmed Bey" cultural complex (Zenith) in Constantine, the commissioner of the event, Ahmed Haniche, indicated. Read more.

Two study agreements signed between ALNAFT and the Vietnamese company PVEP

Two agreements were signed in Oran between the National Agency for the Development of Hydrocarbon Resources (ALNAFT) and the Vietnam Oil and Gas Exploration Production Corporation (PVEP), concerning the study of possibilities for improving hydrocarbon recovery at the Rhourde El Baguel and Bir El Aïssa deposits, in the Berkine region, in southeastern Algeria. Read more.

Newsletter

Embassy of the People's Democratic Republic of Algeria

1st – 15th October 2026 Issue 19

Investment opportunities in Algeria will be the focus of African Energy Week, in Cape Town

The National Agency for the Development of Hydrocarbon Resources (Alnaft) continues its efforts to promote the international tender "Algeria Bid Round 2026" and to mobilise international investors, through its participation in the African Energy Week conference and exhibition, from 12 to 16 October in Cape Town (South Africa), as part of a series of participations in international events specialising in energy and hydrocarbons, in order to highlight the investment potential in hydrocarbons in Algeria. Read more.

Algeria has strong assets to attract long-term investments in the hydrocarbons sector

The president of the National Agency for the Development of Hydrocarbons (ALNAFT), Abdelkader Cherfaoui, stressed in Oran that Algeria has strong assets to attract long-term investments in the hydrocarbon sector. Read more.

Algiers-Tamanrasset railway line: a lever for national development and connectivity with countries in the region

Economists have highlighted the importance of the Algiers-Tamanrasset railway line and the multidimensional strategic scope of this project, which goes beyond the mere framework of transport to support the national economy as a whole and open new markets for Algerian products in the Sahel countries, believing that this infrastructure gives Algeria several advantages on the geostrategic level, in view of its impact on strengthening socio-economic ties, particularly with neighbouring brotherly countries. Read more.

The new mining law provides an incentive framework for investment and international partnerships

The Secretary of State to the Minister of Mines and Mining Industries, Karima Bakir Tafer, indicated in Algiers, during the Algerian-British meeting on the mining sector, that the new mining law offers an incentive legislative and regulatory framework for investment and international partnership, through the simplification of investment procedures, the strengthening of transparency and the valorisation of resources. Read more.

Newsletter

Embassy of the People's Democratic Republic of Algeria

1st – 15th October 2026 Issue 19

Algeria aspires to a partnership with Nordic countries based on investment, technology and training

The Minister of Agriculture, Rural Development and Fisheries, Mr. Sid Ali Khaldi, stressed in Oslo (Norway) that Algeria aspires to a "genuine partnership" with the Nordic countries, based on investment, technology transfer and strengthening training in various sectors, assuring that Algeria, with its economic advantages, is today a destination for partnership and investment. Read more.

Desire to expand bilateral trade in various sectors

The Minister of International Relations and Cooperation of the Republic of South Africa, Mr. Ronald Lamola, stressed the desire to expand trade between Algeria and his country in various sectors, while continuing to strengthen bilateral relations. Read more.

Algeria is banking on hydrogen to build a national value chain and strengthen the energy transition

The Minister of Energy and Renewable Energies, Mourad Adjal, affirmed in Oran that Algeria was counting on the development of renewable hydrogen and the establishment of an integrated national value chain in this field, in order to strengthen its industrial and technological capacities and to support its transition towards a more sustainable energy system. Read more.

Newsletter

Embassy of the People's Democratic Republic of Algeria

1st – 15th October 2026 Issue 19

The 14th edition of NAPEC opens in Oran

The Minister of State, Minister of Hydrocarbons, Mohamed Arkab, and the Minister of Energy and Renewable Energies, Mourad Adjal, presided, in Oran, over the opening ceremony of the 14th edition of the Exhibition and Conference on Energy and Hydrogen in Africa and the Mediterranean (NAPEC-2026) with the participation of more than 450 exhibitors and 230 speakers. Read more.

Signing of several memoranda of understanding and cooperation agreements to strengthen partnerships in the hydrocarbons sector

The Minister of State, Minister of Hydrocarbons, Mohamed Arkab, presided at the "Mohamed Benahmed" Convention Centre in Oran over the signing ceremony of several memoranda of understanding and cooperation agreements aimed at strengthening partnerships, exchanging expertise and developing cooperation in the hydrocarbons sector. Read more.

The Trans-Saharan Gas Pipeline embodies Algeria's vision of strengthening its role as a regional energy platform

The Minister of State, Minister of Hydrocarbons, Mohamed Arkab, affirmed in Oran that the Trans-Saharan Gas Pipeline (TSGP) project is part of Algeria's vision to strengthen its role as a regional energy platform linking African energy resources to Mediterranean and European markets. Read more.

Newsletter

Embassy of the People's Democratic Republic of Algeria

1st – 15th October 2026 Issue 19

Review of investment opportunities in hydrocarbons and renewable energies

The Minister of State, Minister of Hydrocarbons, Mr. Mohamed Arkab, and the Minister of Energy and Renewable Energies, Mr. Mourad Adjal, examined in Riyadh, with the Minister of Energy, Industry and Mineral Resources of the Kingdom of Saudi Arabia, His Royal Highness Prince Abdulaziz bin Salman bin Abdulaziz Al Saud, ways to strengthen bilateral cooperation and investment opportunities in the fields of hydrocarbons, energy and renewable energies, according to a statement from the Ministry of Hydrocarbons. Read more.

Algeria elected to the vice-presidency of the Executive Bureau

Algeria was elected in Riyadh (Saudi Arabia) to the position of Vice-President of the Executive Bureau of the Arab Ministerial Council for Electricity, during the 16th Meeting of the Council, which was attended by the Minister of Energy and Renewable Energies. Read more.

SoutH2 Corridor Project: The 2nd meeting of energy ministers from partner countries concluded in Algiers

The work of the 2nd ministerial meeting of the SoutH2 Corridor project, which brought together the energy ministers of Algeria, Austria, Germany, Italy and Tunisia, was sanctioned in Algiers with the signing of a joint Declaration of political intent, in which the five partners reaffirmed their commitment to strengthening regional and Euro-Mediterranean cooperation in the field of green hydrogen. Read more.

Newsletter

Embassy of the People's Democratic Republic of Algeria

1st – 15th October 2026 Issue 19

The strategic dimension of the project was highlighted by European ministers

European ministers emphasised in Algiers the strategic and economic dimensions of the SoutH2 Corridor project for the transport of green hydrogen to Europe, stressing the need to move to effective implementation, in order to strengthen energy cooperation between Algeria and Europe, and to open new prospects for investment and development on both sides of the Mediterranean. Read more.

Kouidri emphasises the importance of the Algerian-German partnership in the transfer of knowledge and technology

The Minister of Pharmaceutical Industry, Ouacim Kouidri, highlighted in Algiers the importance of the Algerian-German partnership in recent years, particularly in light of the projects implemented between companies from the two countries, emphasising the need to move from manufacturing to the transfer of knowledge and technology and the strengthening of sustainable industrial capacities. Read more.

The first results of the ALTEH2A project feasibility study are expected in 2027

The Minister of Energy and Renewable Energies, Mourad Adjal, announced in Algiers that the first results of the feasibility study of the Algeria-Europe Alliance for Hydrogen (ALTEH2A) project for the production of green hydrogen in Algeria will be published in 2027, underlining Algeria's determination to preserve its role as a central player in energy relations with Europe. Read more.

Newsletter

Embassy of the People's Democratic Republic of Algeria

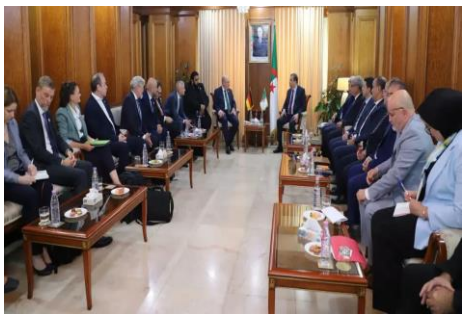
1st – 15th October 2026 Issue 19

Examination of ways to strengthen cooperation and partnership in the hydrocarbons sector

The Minister of State, Minister of Hydrocarbons, Mr. Mohamed Arkab, received in Algiers the Minister of Energy and Petroleum of the Republic of Senegal, Mr. El Hadji Abdourahmane Diouf, with whom he examined ways and means of strengthening bilateral cooperation and developing the partnership between the two countries in the field of hydrocarbons, particularly in the different stages of the value chain of the oil and gas industry, a statement from the ministry indicated. Read more.

Examination of ways to strengthen bilateral cooperation and broaden partnership prospects in the hydrocarbons sector

The Minister of State, Minister of Hydrocarbons, Mohamed Arkab, received in Algiers the State Secretary at the German Federal Ministry for Economic Affairs and Energy, Frank Wetzel, with whom he examined ways to strengthen bilateral cooperation and develop the partnership between the two countries, particularly in the field of hydrocarbons, a statement from the ministry indicated. Read more.



Pharma Invest signs a partnership agreement with the Chinese company Yangtze River Pharmaceutical Pharma Invest, a company specializing in the manufacture of medicines, has signed a partnership and cooperation agreement with the Chinese operator Yangtze River Pharmaceutical Group (YRPG), with a view to strengthening cooperation between the two parties, according to a statement released by the Ministry of Pharmaceutical Industry. Read more.